

Guggenheim Bullish Equity Portfolio, Series 4

Investment Objective

The Guggenheim Bullish Equity Portfolio, Series 4 ("Trust") seeks to provide total return through capital appreciation.

Trust Highlights

- The Trust will invest in a portfolio of 50 equity securities of U.S.-listed companies whose businesses, Guggenheim Funds Distributors, Inc. (the "Sponsor") believes, have high sensitivity to changes in the economy (as measured by a high sensitivity to the stock market) and that have valuation, leverage, and profitability characteristics that combined have been shown to historically outperform the broad universe of U.S. equities.
- The Trust will include securities of companies across large/mid/small capitalizations from a diversified set of sectors. The selected securities will be balanced between traditional growth and value characteristics.
- The Sponsor believes that the portfolio is best suited for investors that are optimistic or "bullish" about the prospects of the U.S. economy over the term of the Trust. However, there can be no assurance that the portfolio will perform in a manner that is consistent with the potential growth of the U.S. economy, outperform U.S. equity securities or achieve its objective.
- The Sponsor, with the assistance of Guggenheim Partners Asset Management, LLC ("GPAM"), an affiliate of Guggenheim Partners, LLC, has selected the securities to be included in the Trust's portfolio.

Security Selection

The Trust's portfolio is constructed and the securities are selected five business days prior to the initial date of deposit (the "Inception Date") using the methodology described below.

To determine the constituents in the final portfolio the following criteria will be utilized:

- Begin with all of the securities listed in the S&P 1500 Composite Index and exclude companies with average or low sensitivity to market moves.
- Rank the remaining securities based on the attractiveness of key fundamentals: free cash flow yield, return on assets, and earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization divided by enterprise value (EBITDA/EV).
- Select the 50 securities with the best overall fundamental rankings listed above, while assuring balanced diversification across portfolio characteristics of size, sector, and growth/value styles.

FOCUS

INDEX DEFINITION The S&P Composite 1500 Index ("Index") combines three leading indices - S&P 500, S&P MidCap 400, and S&P SmallCap 600 - to form an investable benchmark of the U.S. equity market. Covering approximately 85% of the U.S. market capitalization, the Index offers investors an index with the familiar characteristics of the S&P 500 but with broader market exposure. The Index is unmanaged and it is not possible to invest directly in the Index.

RISK CONSIDERATIONS As with all investments, you may lose some or all of your investment in the Trust. No assurance can be given that the Trust's investment objective will be achieved. The Trust also might not perform as well as you expect. This can happen for reasons such as these: • Securities prices can be volatile. • Due to the current state of the economy, the value of the securities held by the Trust may be subject to steep declines or increased volatility due to changes in performance or perception of the issuers. • The Trust includes securities that the Sponsor has determined have a high sensitivity to market fluctuations. In general these stocks tend to be more volatile and therefore riskier than the securities market as a whole. • Share prices or dividend rates on the securities in the Trust may decline during the life of the Trust. • The Trust invests in a U.S.-listed foreign security. The Trust's investment in a U.S.-listed foreign security presents additional risk due to such factors as adverse economic, currency, political, social or regulatory developments in a country, including government seizure of assets, excessive taxation, limitations on the use or transfer of assets, the lack of liquidity or regulatory controls with respect to certain industries or differing legal and/or accounting standards. • The Trust invests in securities issued by small-capitalization and mid-capitalization companies which customarily involve more investment risk than securities of larger capitalization companies. Small-capitalization and mid-capitalization companies may have limited product lines, markets or financial resources and may be more vulnerable to adverse general market or economic developments. • Inflation may lead to a decrease in the value of assets or income from investments. • The Sponsor does not actively manage the portfolio. Please see the Trust prospectus for more complete risk information.

Unit Investment Trusts ("UITs") are fixed and not actively managed. An investment in this fixed portfolio should be made with an understanding of the risks involved with owning various types of investments. Industry predictions may not materialize and securities selected for the Trust may not participate in overall industry growth, if any. Units, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original purchase price.

This UIT is part of a long-term strategy. Consult an attorney or tax advisor regarding tax consequences associated with an investment from one series to the next, if available. Investors should consult their tax advisor to determine tax consequences associated with the purchase or sale of units. Guggenheim Funds Distributors, Inc. does not offer tax advice.

Consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and ongoing expenses of the UIT carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information about the UIT. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing. To obtain a prospectus, visit www.guggenheimfunds.com or contact a securities representative or Guggenheim Funds Distributors, Inc. 2455 Corporate West Drive, Lisle, IL 60532, 800-345-7999.

SALES CHARGES

Sales Charge ("S/C") is based on a $10 per unit offering price.

	Amount Per Unit	Max Per Unit %
Up-front S/C	$0.100	1.00%
Year One Deferred S/C	$0.145	1.45%
Creation and Development ("C&D") Fee	$0.050	0.50%
Total S/C	$0.295	2.95%

The deferred sales charge ("DSC") will be deducted in monthly installments on the last business day commencing March 2012 and ending May 2012. If units are redeemed prior to the DSC period, the entire DSC will be collected.

For unit prices other than $10, percentages of initial sales charge, C&D fees, and DSCs will vary. Early redemption of units will still cause payment of the DSC.
