

GUGGENHEIM BLUEPRINTS® STRATEGY

Guggenheim Global Telecom Strategy Portfolio, Series 8

Investment Objective

The Guggenheim Global Telecom Strategy Portfolio, Series 8 ("Trust") seeks to maximize total return primarily through capital appreciation and dividend income.

Why Global Telecom?

- The Trust's strategy aims to capture potential growth in the telecommunications sector while applying dividend income to seek counterbalance potential turbulence in the equity markets.
- Guggenheim Funds Distributors, Inc. (the "Sponsor") and Guggenheim Partners Asset Management, LLC ("GPAM"), an affiliate of Guggenheim Partners, LLC believe that companies that distribute significant dividends on a consistent basis demonstrate strong financial strength and positive performance relative to their peers.
- The Sponsor and GPAM believe that the telecommunications sector has benefitted from the growth of global wireless and internet infrastructure development and the steady cash flow generated by traditional wireline divisions.

PARTNER FOCUS

RISK CONSIDERATIONS As with all investments, you may lose some or all of your investment in the Trust. No assurance can be given that the Trust's investment objective will be achieved. The Trust also might not perform as well as you expect. This can happen for reasons such as these: • Securities prices can be volatile. • Due to the current state of the economy, the value of the securities held by the Trust may be subject to steep declines or increased volatility due to changes in performance or perception of the issuers.

• Share prices or dividend rates on the securities in the Trust may decline during the life of the Trust. • The Trust invests in securities of companies in the telecommunications services sector which include risks such as rapidly changing technology, rapid product obsolescence or loss of patent protection, cyclical market patterns, evolving industry standards and frequent new product introductions. Competitive pressures are intense and communications stocks can experience rapid volatility. • The Trust invests in foreign securities and ADRs which RISK CONSIDERATIONS (CONTINUED) presents additional risk due to such factors as adverse economic, currency, political, social or regulatory developments in a country, including government seizure of assets, excessive taxation, limitations on the use or transfer of assets, the lack of liquidity or regulatory controls with respect to certain industries or differing legal and/or accounting standards. • The Trust includes securities issued by companies headquartered or incorporated in countries considered to be emerging markets which are substantially smaller, liquid, less and may be exposed to greater volatility and market risks than the U.S. and developed foreign markets. • The Trust includes securities whose value may be dependent on currency exchange rates. The U.S. dollar value of these securities may vary with fluctuations in foreign exchange rates. Most foreign currencies have fluctuated widely in value against the U.S. dollar for various economic and political reasons such as the activity level of large international commercial banks, various central banks, speculators, hedge funds and other buyers and sellers of foreign currencies. • The Trust invests in securities issued by mid-capitalization companies which customarily involve more investment risk than securities of large-capitalization companies. Mid-capitalization companies may have limited product lines, markets or financial resources and may be more vulnerable to adverse general market or economic developments. • Inflation may lead to a decrease in the value of assets or income from investments. • The Sponsor does not actively manage the portfolio. Please see the Trust prospectus for more complete risk information.

Unit Investment Trusts ("UITs") are fixed and not actively managed. An investment in this fixed portfolio should be made with an understanding of the risks involved with owning various types of investments. Industry predictions may not materialize and securities selected for the Trust may not participate in overall industry growth, if any. Units, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original purchase price.

This UIT is part of a long-term strategy. Consult an attorney or tax advisor regarding tax consequences associated with an investment from one series to the next, if available. Investors should consult their tax advisor to determine tax consequences associated with the purchase or sale of units. Guggenheim Funds Distributors, Inc. does not offer tax advice.

Consider the investment objectives, risks, charges and ongoing expenses of the UIT carefully before investing. The prospectus contains this and other information about the UIT. Please read the prospectus carefully before investing.
